President

The Montgomery County Community College Board of Trustees invites applications and nominations for the position of President. The President is the Chief Executive Officer of the College and reports to the Board of Trustees.

For 50 years, Montgomery County Community College has grown with the community to meet the evolving educational and workforce development needs of Montgomery County. The College's comprehensive curriculum includes 100+ associate degree/certificate programs, as well as specialized workforce development training and certifications. Students enjoy the flexibility of learning at the College's thriving campuses in Blue Bell and Pottstown, online through the College's Virtual campus, or at the brand new Culinary Arts Institute in Lansdale. The College also offers first-responder training programs at the Public Safety Training Campus in Conshohocken. Supporting its mission to offer high-quality, affordable and accessible educational opportunities, the College is funded by the County, the State and student tuition. Governed by a 15-person Board of Trustees appointed by the Montgomery County Commissioners, the College is fully accredited by the Commission of Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

As the Chief Executive Officer, the President works in close collaboration, not only with the Board of Trustees, but also with a wide range of internal and external constituencies to provide overall leadership and direction for the College. The President is expected to foster and build upon the existing strengths and traditions of the College while also leading and implementing a strategic vision to ensure the College’s relevance, vitality and viability into the future.

The President is expected to lead and steward the College’s academic, human, physical, financial and technology resources to improve the quality of life and economic well-being of Montgomery County residents and beyond by providing access to a quality learning environment that advances student success.

The President is responsible for providing strong, decisive, and energetic leadership in meeting the College’s commitment to student access, learning, success, and completion. The President is charged with institutional leadership and the implementation of Board policies and corresponding organizational procedures. The incumbent serves under contract and establishes strategic and annual goals, all of which are approved by the Board.
